

Valerie King is a wife, mother, volunteer, writer and editor. She is the owner of Elemental--Editing.com, has published in RESTON magazine and is a member of the Society of Children's Book Writers & Editors, Writers UA, and others. Her volunteer work has included time to the rehabilitation of wounded and homeless veterans, environmental awareness, refugee research and support, volunteer ESOL, and medical research fundraising to name a few. She is a graduate of Georgetown University in Washington, DC, and the University of Cincinnati. She enjoys playing the piano and listening to music, traveling, cooking as therapy and art, gardening, reading, and sports. She counts the mantra: "cel-e-brate" as one of her favorites and repeats it often as she can. She resides near the nation's capital with her husband and has been spotted attending lectures and other amenities of the locale.

She hopes to snorkel on the Great Barrier Reef and visit with future grandchildren. In the meantime she plans another book.
